BELLONA, DESTROYER OF CITIES

Adapted and directed by Jay Scheib after Samuel R. Delany's Dhalgren

May 13 at 7:30pm, May 14 at 7:30pm and May 15 at 2pm –

The Institute of Contemporary Art/Boston

Jay Scheib brings the dystopic and violent vision of Samuel Delany's epic sci-fi novel, Dhalgren to the stage. Using smashing choreography and live video action, this sexy cast of characters explores the limits of life at the end of the world. Bellona combines passages from Delany's novel with original material as well as video and photography by director Jay Scheib and artist Carrie Mae Weems.

BEOWULF - A THOUSAND YEARS OF BAGGAGE by Banana Bag and Bodice

May 13 at 8pm and May 15 at 6pm — A.R.T.'s OBERON

This SongPlay adaptation of the Old English epic poem Beowulf harkens back to the raw and rowdy storytelling of the Scandinavian mead halls. The show features a 7-piece band including dueling trombones, bass clarinet, accordion and saw, combining Weillian cabaret, 40's jazz harmony, indie rock, punk, electronica, and Romantic Lieder into a cacophonous swirl.

PSYCHED by Ryan Landry, featuring Larry Coen

May 14 at 1pm and 4pm —Huntington Theatre Company's Calderwood Pavilion at the BCA
Everybody wanted to talk to the mysterious old lady in Alfred Hitchcock's slasher masterpiece Psycho. Now, after the bloodbath, Mrs. Bates pulls back the curtain and tells HER side! Larry Coen stars in Ryan Landry's twisted take on Hitchcock's masterpiece. WARNING: NOT FOR THE SQUEAMISH!

THE UN-OFFICIAL GUIDE TO AUDIENCE WATCHING PERFORMANCE by Raphael Xavier

May 14 and May 15 at 2pm — A.R.T.'s OBERON

Xavier shifts the rhythms of rap and propels narratives through break dancing to draw parallels between the performer's body, which is inscribed by life's experiences, and the stage itself, putting the audience in one of his shoes laced with stand-up to boot.

GRAND THEFT OVID by Eddie Kim

May 14 at 4pm — A.R.T.'s OBERON

Characters from World of Warcraft, Halo Reach, and Grand Theft Auto 4 perform tales from Ovid's Metamorphoses. Middle and high school students turn into digital "puppeteers" when they operate projected images of their favorite games. This production combines ancient text with modern technology to create an original theatrical experience.

CITY COUNCIL MEETING by Aaron Landsman

May 14 at 6pm and May 15 at 4pm — A.R.T.'s OBERON

Borrowing tales from half-a-dozen cities where Aaron Landsman sat in on government meetings, as well as improvised testimony from you the viewer, this piece imagines public discourse as art and vice versa. Come early and you could end up as the Mayor of this night. Come late and you may lose your voice.

FORNICATED FROM THE BEATLES by Mikhael Tara Garver and The New Ensemble

May 14 at 8pm — A.R.T.'s OBERON

A generation born to parents who fell in bed to the yearning rhythms of John, Paul, Ringo, and George – searching for their own tune to come together. Born from a moment when the unexplainable power of music rocked the world. Music that resonates still. This club piece asks, "What do we reveal when we come together and we think no one is watching?"

JOIN THE CONVERSATION! BRUNCH

May 15 at 12pm—Huntington Theatre Company's Calderwood Pavilion at the BCA
Enjoy live music and mingle with other festival-goers to talk about the weekend's adventures and experiences. Exciting performers to be announced.

FESTIVAL CLOSING PARTY featuring THE LISPS

May 15 at 8 p.m. — A.R.T.'s OBERON

The closing party features The Lips and delightful surprises cooked up by OBERON and its eclectic artists. The Lips are a New York-based band whose songs borrow liberally from vaudeville, science fiction, and Americana. Their hyperactive performances typically involve bloody tambourines, wrestling, lipstick smeared melodicas, old filing cabinets, and film reels suspended by rusty chains.

And launching this week:

THE EMERGING AMERICA AUDIO PLAYS, PODCASTS, AND WALKING TOURS

ABOUT THE AMERICAN REPERTORY THEATER (A.R.T.)

The A.R.T. is one of the country's most celebrated resident theaters and the winner of numerous awards including the Tony Award, the Pulitzer Prize, and regional Elliot Norton and I.R.N.E. Awards. In 2002 the A.R.T. was the recipient of the National Theatre Conference's Outstanding Achievement Award, and in May of 2003 it was named one of the top three regional theaters in the country by Time magazine. Founded by Robert Brustein in 1980, the A.R.T. during its 30-year history has welcomed many major American and international theater artists, presenting a diverse repertoire that includes new American plays, bold reinterpretations of classical texts, and provocative new music theater productions. The A.R.T. has performed throughout the U.S. and worldwide in 21 cities in 16 countries on 4 continents. It has presented over 200 productions, over half of which were premieres of new plays, translations, and adaptations. In 2009, the A.R.T. welcomed its new Artistic Director, Diane Paulus. Armed with the A.R.T.'s mission to expand the boundaries of theater, Paulus and her team have engaged thousands of new theatergoers at performances of Sleep No More, The Donkey Show, Gatz, Best of Both Worlds, Johnny Baseball, and Cabaret as well as festivals like Emerging America. Critics and audiences have embraced the immersive environments that have become hallmarks of A.R.T. productions. The Theater has broadened its focus to include the audience's total experience, providing them with a sense of ownership in the theatrical event. Initiatives like the A.R.T.'s new club theater OBERON, which Paulus calls a "second stage for the 21st century," is an example of one initiative that has not only become an incubator for local artists but also has attracted national attention as a groundbreaking model for programming. Through all of its work, the A.R.T. is committed to building a community of artists, designers, technicians, administrators, and audience.
